About Angelus

Château Angélus, owned by the de Boüard de Laforest family for generations, takes its name from the Angelus bell, heard from three churches around its vineyard; the bell appears on its label. It was promoted to Premier Grand Cru Classé “A” in 2012 and in 2022 chose to leave the Saint-Émilion classification.

About the wine

Angélus blends Merlot with a high share of Cabernet Franc. It is rich and polished, with dark fruit, spice and a fresh, structured finish, and ages for decades.

OWNING FINE WINE WITH NOKESBRIDGE

Wine bought through Nokesbridge is held under bond in professional, temperature-controlled storage and insured. It is recorded in your name, with no duty or VAT to pay while it stays in bond, and you can see it in your account at www.nokesbridge.co.uk/account. When you would like to sell your wine or take delivery, just ask us.

The value of fine wine and gold can fall as well as rise. Nokesbridge does not provide financial advice.
