About Angelus

Château Angélus, owned by the de Bouïard de Laforest family for generations, takes its name from the Angelus bell, heard from three churches around its vineyard; the bell appears on its label. It was promoted to Premier Grand Cru Classé “A” in 2012 and in 2022 chose to leave the Saint-Émilion classification.

About the wine

Angélus blends Merlot with a high share of Cabernet Franc. It is rich and polished, with dark fruit, spice and a fresh, structured finish, and ages for decades.
