About The Ojai Vineyard

The Ojai Vineyard was founded in the early 1980s by Adam Tolmach, who began with a small vineyard in the Ojai Valley before turning mainly to grapes bought from leading vineyards in Santa Barbara County.

Tolmach is known for a restrained, food-friendly style, picking for freshness and moderate alcohol. The winery makes a range of single-vineyard Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Syrah, and is respected as one of the pioneers of fine wine in the Santa Barbara area.

About Bien Nacido Vineyard Chardonnay, Santa Maria Valley

Bien Nacido is one of California's best-known vineyards, in the cool Santa Maria Valley, where morning fog and ocean winds give a long growing season. Ojai's Chardonnay from it is fresh, precise and mineral, with citrus and orchard fruit and well-judged oak. It drinks well young and develops over several years.
