About Solena

Solena Estate is a winery in the Yamhill-Carlton area of Oregon's Willamette Valley, founded by Laurent Montalieu and Danielle Andrus Montalieu. Laurent, a native of Bordeaux, has long experience of making wine in Oregon.

The estate's own vineyard, Domaine Danielle Laurent, is planted mainly to Pinot Noir on the marine sedimentary soils typical of Yamhill-Carlton. Solena focuses on Pinot Noir and other cool-climate varieties, made in a balanced, fruit-forward style that reflects the Willamette Valley.

About Domaine Danielle Laurent Pinot Noir, Yamhill-Carlton

This Pinot Noir comes from Solena's estate vineyard, Domaine Danielle Laurent, in the Yamhill-Carlton AVA. The marine sedimentary soils of the area tend to give dark-fruited, supple Pinot Noir with spice and earthy notes. It is the estate's flagship Pinot Noir and drinks well from release, developing over eight to ten years.

OWNING FINE WINE WITH NOKESBRIDGE

Wine bought through Nokesbridge is held under bond in professional, temperature-controlled storage and insured. It is recorded in your name, with no duty or VAT to pay while it stays in bond, and you can see it in your account at www.nokesbridge.co.uk/account. When you would like to sell your wine or take delivery, just ask us.

The value of fine wine and gold can fall as well as rise. Nokesbridge does not provide financial advice.
