About Clos Erasmus

Clos Erasmus is a small estate in Gratallops, in the Priorat region of Catalonia, owned by Daphne Glorian. She was one of the small group of pioneers, alongside René Barbier and Álvaro Palacios, who revived Priorat in the late 1980s and early 1990s, each making wine under a 'Clos' name.

The vineyard is planted on the steep slate and quartz soils known locally as llicorella, and is farmed biodynamically. Clos Erasmus is made in very small quantities and is one of the most sought-after wines of Spain.

About Priorat

The grand vin of Clos Erasmus is a Priorat red based on Grenache, blended with Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon from the estate's terraced slate vineyard. It is concentrated and intense, with dark fruit, mineral and herbal notes and a firm structure. It benefits from eight to ten years in bottle and good vintages age for twenty or more.
