About Fattoria Le Pupille

Fattoria Le Pupille is a family estate in the Maremma, the coastal part of southern Tuscany near Grosseto. Run by Elisabetta Geppetti since the 1980s, it played an important part in establishing the Maremma as a source of serious wine, both with Morellino di Scansano and with its Bordeaux-style red, Saffredi.

The vineyards benefit from the warm, sea-influenced climate of the Tuscan coast, which suits Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Petit Verdot as well as the local Sangiovese. Saffredi is the estate's flagship and its best-known wine among collectors.

About Saffredi, Maremma Toscana IGT

Saffredi is Le Pupille's flagship red, a Bordeaux-style blend led by Cabernet Sauvignon with Merlot and Petit Verdot from vineyards in the Maremma. It is ripe and full-bodied, with dark fruit, spice and firm tannins, reflecting the warm coastal climate. Among the Maremma's pioneering wines, it ages well over fifteen years or more.
