About Massetino

Massetino is the second wine of Masseto, the celebrated Merlot from the Bolgheri coast of Tuscany. Masseto was first made in the 1980s at Tenuta dell'Ornellaia and is now run as a separate estate within the Frescobaldi group, with its own cellar.

Massetino was introduced with the 2017 vintage. It comes from the same clay-rich vineyard as Masseto and is made by the same team, offering the estate's style in a form ready to drink sooner. Its limited production and its connection to Masseto make it of real interest to collectors.

About Toscana, Masseto

Massetino is the second wine of Masseto, made principally from Merlot grown on the blue clay of the Masseto vineyard in Bolgheri. It shares the richness and velvety texture of its senior wine, with dark fruit and fine tannin, but is designed to open earlier. It drinks well from a few years after release and keeps for a decade or more.
