About Tua Rita

Tua Rita was founded in 1984 by Rita Tua and Virgilio Bisti, who bought a small property near Suvereto in the Val di Cornia, on the Tuscan coast south of Bolgheri. They planted Bordeaux varieties on the warm hillsides, and their first wines in the early 1990s quickly drew attention.

The estate is still family run and is best known for Redigaffi, a pure Merlot that became one of Italy's most sought-after reds, and for Giusto di Notri, a Bordeaux-style blend. The wines are rich, ripe and polished, and they have helped put Suvereto on the map.

About Redigaffi, Toscana IGT

Redigaffi is Tua Rita's flagship, a pure Merlot from the estate's vineyards near Suvereto, first made in the mid-1990s. It is opulent and concentrated, with dense dark fruit, a velvety texture and fine tannins. Produced in small quantities, it is enjoyable fairly young but has the structure to age for twenty years.
