About Ceritas

Ceritas is a small winery run by John Raytek and Phoebe Bass, focusing on Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from cool sites on the Sonoma Coast. It works with a handful of vineyards close to the Pacific, where fog and ocean breezes temper the California sun.

The wines are made with a light touch to show the character of each site, and are fresh, precise and moderate in alcohol. Ceritas is part of a group of Californian producers known for a more restrained, Burgundian approach, and its small production is keenly followed.

About Charles Heintz Chardonnay, Sonoma Coast

Charles Heintz is a long-established vineyard near Occidental on the Sonoma Coast, well known for its Chardonnay, and Ceritas makes a single-vineyard wine from it. The cool coastal setting gives a fresh, taut Chardonnay with citrus, orchard fruit and mineral notes, made with restrained oak. It is attractive young and can age for several years.
