About Maison Louis Latour

Maison Louis Latour is one of Burgundy's oldest family firms, founded in 1797 and still run by the Latour family from Beaune. It combines a négociant business with its own domaine vineyards, centred on the hill of Corton, where the family owns Château Corton Grancey and one of the largest holdings of grand cru vineyard.

Louis Latour is especially associated with Corton-Charlemagne, and it also makes wines from the great white grands crus of Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet. The house has its own cooperage and a long, traditional approach, and its top white wines from mature vintages are well regarded by collectors.

OWNING FINE WINE WITH NOKESBRIDGE

Wine bought through Nokesbridge is held under bond in professional, temperature-controlled storage and insured. It is recorded in your name, with no duty or VAT to pay while it stays in bond, and you can see it in your account at www.nokesbridge.co.uk/account. When you would like to sell your wine or take delivery, just ask us.

The value of fine wine and gold can fall as well as rise. Nokesbridge does not provide financial advice.
