About Cos d'Estournel

Château Cos d’Estournel is a Second Growth of Saint-Estèphe, on a gravel rise facing Lafite Rothschild across the border with Pauillac. Its founder, Louis-Gaspard d’Estournel, traded with India and built the estate’s famous oriental pagodas. It has been owned by Michel Reybier since 2000.

Cos is known for rich, exotic, long-lived wines and is one of the leading “super seconds”.

About the wine

Cos d’Estournel combines Saint-Estèphe’s structure with unusual richness and spice. It is dense and ripe in youth and develops great complexity over two decades or more.

OWNING FINE WINE WITH NOKESBRIDGE

Wine bought through Nokesbridge is held under bond in professional, temperature-controlled storage and insured. It is recorded in your name, with no duty or VAT to pay while it stays in bond, and you can see it in your account at www.nokesbridge.co.uk/account. When you would like to sell your wine or take delivery, just ask us.

The value of fine wine and gold can fall as well as rise. Nokesbridge does not provide financial advice.
