About Montrose

Château Montrose sits on a gravel ridge overlooking the Gironde estuary in Saint-Estèphe. It was classified a Second Growth in 1855 and since 2006 has been owned by Martin and Olivier Bouygues, who have invested heavily in the vineyard and in an environmentally minded new winery.

Montrose is known for powerful, long-lived wines that can rival the First Growths in great vintages.

About La Dame de Montrose

La Dame de Montrose is the second wine of Château Montrose. Riper and softer than the grand vin, it gives an approachable taste of the estate's style.
