About La Mission Haut-Brion

Château La Mission Haut-Brion lies in Pessac, on the edge of the city of Bordeaux, across the road from Château Haut-Brion. Named after the mission priests who owned it from the late seventeenth century, it has belonged to Domaine Clarence Dillon, the owners of Haut-Brion, since 1983.

It is a Classified Growth of Graves and is widely considered to make wines of First Growth quality, both red and white.

About the wine

The red La Mission Haut-Brion is rich and powerful, with dark fruit, the smoky, earthy notes typical of the Graves gravel, and a firm structure. It is slow to mature and great vintages last for decades.

OWNING FINE WINE WITH NOKESBRIDGE

Wine bought through Nokesbridge is held under bond in professional, temperature-controlled storage and insured. It is recorded in your name, with no duty or VAT to pay while it stays in bond, and you can see it in your account at www.nokesbridge.co.uk/account. When you would like to sell your wine or take delivery, just ask us.

The value of fine wine and gold can fall as well as rise. Nokesbridge does not provide financial advice.
