About Domaine Bouchard Pere et Fils

Bouchard Père et Fils is one of the oldest houses in Burgundy, founded in 1731 and based in Beaune, where its wines mature in the cellars of the medieval Château de Beaune. It was owned by the Henriot family from 1995 and is now part of the Pinault family's Artémis Domaines.

Bouchard is also one of the largest vineyard owners on the Côte d'Or, with a substantial share of premier and grand cru land in both the Côte de Beaune and the Côte de Nuits. Its domaine wines, from Montrachet to Chambertin, are made with care for each site and are valued for their reliability and ability to age.
