About Pape Clement

Château Pape Clément in Pessac is one of the oldest wine estates in Bordeaux. It takes its name from Bertrand de Goth, Archbishop of Bordeaux, who owned the vineyard before becoming Pope Clement V in 1305. Today it belongs to Bernard Magrez.

It is a Classified Growth of Graves, making a rich, modern red and a small amount of white.

About the wine

The red Pape Clément is ripe and generous, with dark fruit, a smoky Graves character and plenty of oak when young. It drinks well from around ten years and good vintages age for twenty or more.

OWNING FINE WINE WITH NOKESBRIDGE

Wine bought through Nokesbridge is held under bond in professional, temperature-controlled storage and insured. It is recorded in your name, with no duty or VAT to pay while it stays in bond, and you can see it in your account at www.nokesbridge.co.uk/account. When you would like to sell your wine or take delivery, just ask us.

The value of fine wine and gold can fall as well as rise. Nokesbridge does not provide financial advice.
