About Pol Roger

Pol Roger is a family-owned Champagne house in Épernay, founded in 1849 by Pol Roger and still run by his descendants. Its deep, cold chalk cellars beneath the Avenue de Champagne allow a slow second fermentation, and riddling is still done by hand.

The house is known for a fine, persistent mousse and a style balanced between Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. Its long friendship with Sir Winston Churchill, a devoted customer, led to the prestige cuvée named after him. Pol Roger's vintage wines are widely collected for their reliability and ability to age.

About Sir Winston Churchill

Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill is Pol Roger's prestige Champagne, first made with the 1975 vintage in tribute to the house's most famous admirer. Produced only in exceptional years, it is a Pinot Noir-led blend with Chardonnay, the exact proportions never disclosed. It is full, powerful and long-lived, and benefits from many years of further ageing.
