About Vega Sicilia

Vega Sicilia is the best-known fine wine estate in Spain, founded in 1864 in what is now the Ribera del Duero region. Its vineyards were originally planted with Bordeaux varieties alongside the local Tinto Fino, or Tempranillo, and the estate has been owned by the Álvarez family since 1982.

Vega Sicilia is known for wines of great longevity aged at length before release, above all Único, which is often released a decade or more after the vintage. Its wines are highly prized and allocated to a restricted list of buyers.
